

3rd International Meeting on Human Rights, Social Work and Education

L'Aquila 6th May – 11th May

Monday 6th

18:00

Welcome in L'Aquila with Students and Professors of Social Work and Education Course (Hotel Porta Rivera)

Antonella Nuzzaci - Alessandro Vaccarelli, Giada Cucchiarella – Nicoletta Di Genova – Anna Rullo – Fabio Centi – Vania Scoppetta – Emanuela Bafile – Martina Tralce – Daniel Peter Walters

20:00

Dinner

Tuesday 7th

9:30

Visiting 99 Cannelle and Basilica di Collemaggio

10:30

Conference – Immigration in Italy (Dossier statistic 2019) (Prof. Luigi Gaffuri) – Dipartimento di Scienze Umane, Aula magna

During the Conference Martina Mittenhuber (Head of The Human Rights Office of Nurmberg) will speak about "Human Rights Politics in a Multicultural Society: Nuremberg as the city of Human Rights and Peace". The conference, with exception of Martina Mittenhuber's relation, will be in Italian language (no translation)

12:00

Meeting with Simone Gozzano, Director of Human Sciences Department

Talk with Antonella Nuzzaci, President of the Social work and Education Course – Comparison between German and Italian models for the social workers training - Department of Human Studies

15:30

Exploring a city after an Earthquake (Lina Calandra, Alessandro Vaccarelli)

Wednesday 8th

8:00 – 18:00

Visiting Comunità Montana del Velino, Borbona and Amatrice after the earthquakes 2016/2017

Social work and emergencies – Talking with Stefania Marantoni, Maria Antonietta Di Gaspare, Cosimo Mangione, Cooperativa Prossimità, Alessandro Vaccarelli

Visting Borbona and Amatrice

Thursday 9th

9:30

Welcome at University of L'Aquila: meeting with the Rector of University (Paola Inverardi) and International Office Director (Anna Tozzi)

Seminars

Social Work and Human Rights – Michael Helmbrecht

The voice of the survivors of natural disasters - Cosimo Mangione

Social service and community developing: the case of Angela Zucconi – Silvia Nanni

Human Rights in Italy: issues and open questions - Annarita Iacopino

Human Rights Politics in a Multicultural Society: Nuremberg as the city of Human Rights and Peace - Martina Mittenhuber

Discussing about Education and Social Service: Marco Antonio D'Arcangeli, Maria Vittoria Isidori, Antonella Nuzzaci, Alessandro Vaccarelli

 Translation (Italian, German, English)*

17:00

Populism in Italy: talking with Americo Di Benedetto, Michael Helmbrecht, Silvia Nanni – Sala Ipogea – Consiglio Regionale

Friday 10th

10:00

Visiting the SPRAR Project of L'Aquila: discussing with refugees, social workers, educators and Associations involved in migrant integration

15:00

Meeting with Carlo Fonzi and Davide Adacher (Abruzzo Institute of History of Resistance and Contemporary Italy) – Dipartimento di scienze umane – aula 4A

Main Topic: Fascism, Nazism, right wing populism today: the role of social work and education in European context

The activities of Abruzzo Institute of History of Resistance and Contemporary Italy – Carlo Fonzi

An intellectual against racism: a personal lifestory – Michael Helmbrecht

Memory and Travel: a project for citizenship education – Davide Adacher (Abruzzo Institute of History of Resistance and Contemporary Italy)

Remembering Irena Sendler, a social worker for freedom and for children safety during Shoah – Alessandro Vaccarelli

19:00

Civil Society and Human Rights: meeting with Abruzzo Crocevia, Emergency, Spazio Praxis, UDU.

Social Dinner (Spazio Praxis)

Saturday 11th

9:00 – 17:00

Visiting Rieti with Vania Scoppetta, Anna Rullo

Scientific Coordination: Michael Helmbrecht, Cosimo Mangione, Alessandro Vaccarelli

Scientific Committee: Michael Helmbrecht, Cosimo Mangione, Marco Antonio D'Arcangeli, Annarita Iacopino, Maria Vittoria Isidori, Silvia Nanni, Antonella Nuzzaci, Alessandro Vaccarelli

Organization and Logistic: Fabio Centi, Giada Cucchiarella, Nicoletta Di Genova, Anna Rullo, Vania Scoppetta

Translation: Letizia Giorgetta, Daniel Peter Walters